MODIFIED BY COMMISSION

Order Issued Affecting Demurrage and Car Service Charges.

CONFERENCE WAS

Wholesale Lumber Dealers Secure Concessions From Commission.

For several days complaints have been coming into the State Corporation Commission from the wholesale lumber dealoperation of Rule IX of the rules and regulations relating to storage, demur the railroad companies here to althese wholesale lumber merchants, unload their lumber in the yard of the milroad, and let it remain there four peyond the time specified by the lirginia Car Service Association's rules. nt, been built up on this basis. Corporation Commission, to take effect

"All package freight unloaded by ralload companies in their depots or warea railroad company, which is forty-eight hours, computing from

of arrival, may be subject to the charge of storage for each day, or fraction of a day, it may remain in the custody of the fallroad company, as follows:

TO STEAMBOATS AS WELL.

In less than carloads, not more than one cent per hundred pounds per day, or fraction thereof; in carload quantities, not more than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds per day, or fraction thereof, but not exceeding $1 per car per day, or fraction of a day; provided, that in no case shall the amount so collected for storage of a less than carload shipment exceed the amount authorized to be charged as storage or demurrage on a carload of similar freight for the same length of time when not unloaded from car, as provided by the demurrage rules.

(b) This rule shall apply also to steamcar, as provided by the demurrage rules.

(b) This rule shall apply also to steampoat and steamship companies unloading package freight in their warehouses, expept that one hundred and twenty (120) hours of free time shall be allowed instead of forty-eight.

CONFERENCE HELD.

When it became evident from the decision of the Supreme Court, which aftirmed the rules of the commission, that they would go into effective operation, the railroad companies issued a circular stating that their custom of allowing mission had expired, the full charge as allowed by Rule IX, as above quoted, would be made. The wholesale lumber dealers believed this would be a great hardship upon them, and promptly carried their grievance to the State Corporation Commission, before which body on Tuesday morning was held a conference, at which the representatives of the railroad companies entering this city and of the Virginia Car Service Association, as well as representatives from the Chamber of Commerce of this city and the lumber merchants, were present. Both sides were heard in detail by the commission, and speeches were made by the attorneys for the railroad companies. The outcome of the matter was the and runs back 150 feet to an alley.

This is unquestionably the best on the market, as locations of the kind can rarely be had, and is admirably situated for a first-class, up-to-date boarding house, and is a good location for flats, or will make a fine residence. As business moves up Broad and Main Streets this property will continue to enhance in value. The socition can't be surpassed for convenience and desirability. It is near most every place one would likely want to go. It always commands a first-class tenant, the present one having been there about six years. The dwelling is handsome and, well built, with about twenty-two rooms, large halls, and such conveniences as are usually found in such a property. Any one testring to place money where-they will always have a solid and regular income will do well to attend this sale.
